“A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good...” Luke 6:45
GOSPEL REFLECTION:

Dear Parishioners & Visitors,

We all have words to live by. Maybe they were told to us by parents or grandparents, or perhaps a teacher or a relative. But we can all recall maxims by which we live. Today’s gospel gives us life lessons or words to live by. In fact, if read in isolation, this reading is broader than Christianity. It could readily be accepted by non-Christians too. And such is often the case with life lessons. They are not limited to one religious or denominational outlook.

The life lessons Jesus teaches in this gospel are akin to homespun wisdom rooted in daily life and experience. When we say a project at work is being performed like “the blind leading the blind,” we are echoing Jesus’ teaching. Though we mean no disrespect to the blind, the metaphor is easily grasped and understood. And how often have we experienced the nitpicking nag who quickly points out the fault in others while conveniently overlooking his or her own. Jesus’ warning about noticing the splinter in another’s eye while neglecting the wooden beam in our own captures that sentiment well. Even so, Jesus is more adamant about us removing the beam from our own eye than simply not noticing the splinter in another.

The concluding bit of wisdom is based on lived experience as well. Just as a good tree does not produce bad fruit, so it is with people. “By their fruits you shall know them” is another way to sum this up; “actions speak louder than words” is another. If a person is performing good works, it’s likely they are a good person. On the other hand, if a person performs only selfish acts, that, too, is a window into their soul, for as Jesus puts it, “[F]rom the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks.” Here the basis on one’s fundamental goodness is not whether they believe in Jesus, or even God. It’s not whether they go to church or synagogue. And given the time this was written, it’s certainly not about praying the rosary or attending First Fridays. Instead, a person’s heart is ultimately known by their words and actions. And actions speak louder than words. These are words to live by.

LIVING AND PRAYING WITH THE WORD

Holy God, you have spoken your Word to us in the life, death, and resurrection of your son, Jesus Christ. Help me learn from his use of words to remove whatever blinds me or keeps me self-centered and to see as you see in order to produce the fruit of healing and life-giving love that Jesus speaks to us.

NEXT WEEK’S READINGS
Prepare Your Heart & Mind for Next Week

First Reading:
Deuteronomy 26:4-10
Psalm 91:15b
Second Reading:
Romans 10:8-13
Let us remember in our Prayers...

Those who are sick or who suffer in any way, especially the homebound and the elderly, that God will assist them in their time of need and that they may find comfort and healing in Christ.

John Bamber         Michael Brust         Mary Dekle
Corrado DeMartini  Marian Dickey         Danny Forchione
Laura Garcia       Denyse Hale           Dolores Martin
Fred Jungmann      Mow, Kain Chiu        Ron Ramirez
Bill Matthews      Agnes Piva            Crystal Zapata

Those who have died, Chuck Barbarini, Emilia Brust, and Salvatore Rinaldi, the deceased of our parish, and especially those who have no one to pray for them.

May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. May the Perpetual Light Shine upon them.

A Prayer for Vocations

Loving and generous God, you called the prophets to bring your word to your chosen people.
Your Son, Jesus, called the first disciples to be bold proclaimers of the good news.
In the modern world, you continue to call your sons and daughters to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life.
Calm the chaos and soothe the sounds of our world, and allow more to hear your soft voice calling them to pick up their cross and follow.
May the Holy Spirit fall upon your church in a profound way, so that we may experience a tremendous harvest of grace.
May vocations increase ever abundantly and may your church stand as a witness to the world of the good news of your Son, Jesus Christ.—Amen

Our second project will be collecting socks and gloves for those in need led by Alastair Budd, one of our 8th grade students from our parish school.

These projects will commence March 9 through April 14. Collection bins will be available in the church and school as usual.

We extend our sincere gratitude and acknowledge the following supporters of this year’s Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. Our assessment is: $38,971.64. As of February 19th we have raised: $8,195.00, including pledges.

Please use the brochures, which were mailed out recently to registered parishioners. You may also use the brochures found in the back of the church. Let’s all pitch in. No amount is too small. Thank You.

NEW BEGINNINGS:
A CATHOLIC DIVORCE MINISTRY

The Archdiocese strives to make known Christ's healing love, so that all who suffer from separation or divorce might experience new life, reconciliation, and restoration, and by meeting people in a similar position may find help to rebuild their own lives. We also recognize that separated and divorced people are not mere recipients of the Church's compassion; they are also ministers of that compassion. Through their vulnerability, suffering, courage, faithfulness, and patient endurance they bear witness to Christ and his redeeming grace in the world. New Beginnings Ministry offers these support groups:

- First and Third Wednesdays, 7:00 pm: St. Brendan Church, Parish Center, 29 Rockaway Ave., San Francisco. Contact Diana (415-929-0999 / dianamwild@gmail.com) or Martin (650-739-6446) for more information.
- Second Friday each month, 6:30 pm: St. Hilary Parish, 761 Hilary Dr., Tiburon. Contact Karen (415-250-2597).
- Third Friday each month, 7:00 pm: A Spanish-speaking group at Our Lady of Loretto, 1806 Novato Blvd., Novato. Contact Victoria (702-460-3116).
