Fifth Sunday of Lent

Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.”
— Jn 8:6-7

Dear Parishioners & Visitors,

Although liturgically we are reading from the Gospel of Luke, Cycle C, today we read from John. But interestingly, this story is not in the earliest or best manuscripts of the Gospel of John. In fact, many later manuscripts place this story in the Gospel of Luke, effectively between Luke 21:38 and 22:1, or after the last chapter of the gospel. And other manuscripts have this story not in John 8 (where we find it in the canon) but following John 7:36. Of course, none of this detracts from the story being canonical and inspired Scripture. But it’s good to keep in mind the varied history and manuscript difficulties with the story. The notes in the New American Bible explain more.

Part of the reason we pay attention to the problematic background of the story is that it gives us an insight into the early church that produced the text. There was a time in church history, a few centuries after Jesus’ death and resurrection, that some Christians did not believe in forgiveness of sin after one’s baptism. As a result, many Christians were delaying baptism until well after their “sinning years” were over, effectively delaying baptism until one’s deathbed! But that can be a difficult time to predict. Other Christians were proclaiming what was perceived to be a more libertine attitude, namely, that one could be forgiven for sins even after one was baptized. Recall that part of the difficulty was that the Letter to the Hebrews states quite clearly, “If we sin deliberately after receiving knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains sacrifice for sins but a fearful prospect of judgment and a flaming fire that is going to consume the adversaries.”(Heb 10:26-27). Further, Tertullian argued against any forgiveness of sins after baptism.

In the face of such internal church disputes comes this story about Jesus. That is to say, it was about the time that the church was engaging in the debate about forgiveness of sins that the story of Jesus forgiving the woman caught in adultery began to appear in early manuscripts. It’s as though the church recalled an episode from Jesus’ life, or told a story about how Jesus might approach the issue. And now, of course, we have the sacrament of reconciliation. The history of the sacrament of reconciliation is beyond the purview of this brief essay. But the story in today’s gospel seems to have been a prominent post in the journey of how the church went from Jesus’ personal ministry to the sacrament of reconciliation we have today.

Forgiveness is not an easy thing to express; it is not an easy thing to do. We see from Jesus’ own ministry, from the experience of the early church, and probably our own past experiences how quickly we exclude others, setting apart and separating them. But Jesus’ ministry, and by extension, the church’s own ministry, is about inclusion through reconciliation. Jesus proclaims the forgiveness of sins, even undergoing a baptism of forgiveness. By his ministry those on the margins, those who have been condemned, are brought back and welcomed into the fold. The disciples of Jesus carry this ministry forward into the world. And like the time of Jesus, this ministry moves forward even when there are forces present who prefer exclusion. The question on the WWJD bracelet, “What would Jesus do?” is particularly appropriate here. Jesus did not condemn. Neither should we. Jesus forgave, So should we.

This Lent, the Archdiocese is undertaking an initiative to encourage greater participation in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, especially among those who have not received this sacrament recently. The Light is on for You began in the Washington, DC metro area and has spread throughout the country over the last decade.

Every parish in the Archdiocese of San Francisco will be offering the Sacrament of Reconciliation/Confession every Tuesday evening during Lent from 6:00 p.m. to 8 p.m.

You are welcome to receive this Sacrament here at St. Philip’s also on Tuesdays, 6-8 p.m.,

April 6th & 7th Second Collection

This weekend, the Little Sisters of the Poor are visiting our Parish, giving us the opportunity to share their ministry in caring for the elderly poor. The little Sisters care for 86 elderly residents in ‘St. Anne’s Home’ in San Francisco, and most of their financial support comes from the generosity of people like you, beloved brothers & sisters in Christ. Any assistance you are able to give will be deeply appreciated.

To know more about the works and life of the Little Sisters, you can visit their website at: www.littlesistersofthepoorsanfrancisco.org

NEXT WEEK’S READINGS (4-14-2019)

Prepare Your Heart & Mind for Next Week’s Encounter

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7
Psalm: 22:2a

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me" (Rv 3:20).

We hear in Scripture that Jesus stands at the door of our heart and knocks. He only invites and never demands or breaks into our lives without our acceptance. He knocks, we open the door, and the invitation and welcome are complete.

Let us pray...
God of the invitation, you knock upon the door of everyone's heart.
We seek the courage to open that door, for we know the responsibility of saying yes.
We humbly ask you for your wisdom to serve your church with compassion and acceptance.
We believe that when we say yes, you will provide the grace for the work ahead.
Give grace to those men and women who have dedicated their lives to constant service to your church.
Also give grace to those couples and single men and women who work for the church in their secular lives.
We ask all this through Christ our Lord and brother, who live and reign with you and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

SAINT STANISLAUS

Anyone who reads the history of Eastern Europe cannot help but chance on the name of Stanislaus, the saintly but tragic bishop of Kraków, patron of Poland. He is remembered with Saints Thomas More and Thomas Becket for vigorous opposition to the evils of an unjust government.

Born in Szczepanów near Kraków on July 26, 1030, he was ordained a priest after being educated in the cathedral schools of Gniezno, then capital of Poland, and at Paris. He was appointed preacher and archdeacon to the bishop of Kraków, where his eloquence and example brought about real conversion in many of his penitents, both clergy and laity. He became bishop of Kraków in 1072.

During an expedition against the Grand Duchy of Kiev, Stanislaus became involved in the political situation of Poland. Known for his outspokenness, he aimed his attacks at the evils of the peasantry and the king, especially the unjust wars and immoral acts of King Boleslaus II.

The king first excused himself, then made a show of penance, then relapsed into his old ways. Stanislaus continued his open opposition in spite of charges of treason and threats of death, finally excommunicating the king. Enraged, the latter ordered soldiers to kill the bishop. When they refused, the king killed Stanislaus with his own hands.

FORGIVE SOMEONE WHO HAS WRONGED YOU. THIS CAN BE DIFFICULT AND CHALLENGING, BUT MAKING AMENDS CAN HAVE A TRANSFORMATIVE EFFECT ON YOUR LIFE.
