Ascension
OF THE LORD
Christian life will have its times of reverence and awe, times when we look to the heavens in silence. But we are also called upon to break the stillness of those moments to go forth with the Good News.

Acts of the Apostles 1:1-11; Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9; Ephesians 1:17-23
Luke 24:46-53

Dear Parishioners & Visitors,

Beginnings and endings are important. Sometimes we even ritualize those events, such as with baptism and funerals. But there are other important beginnings and endings throughout our lives too. Today’s reading is from the end of the Gospel of Luke. It ends where it began, in the Jerusalem temple. It’s as though Luke is telling us that all has come full circle. And immediately prior to the disciples being in the temple, they had been brought out to Bethany, a village on the slope of the Mount of Olives, about a mile and a half from ancient Jerusalem. There at Bethany they witnessed for the final time the visible, risen Christ. And that is the fundamental definition of the ascension, the going up to the heavens; it is the final leave-taking of Jesus before his assembled followers. After this, the risen Lord will no longer appear as he did.

Importantly, we are reading today from the Gospel of Luke, where the ascension of Jesus takes place on Easter Sunday evening. Later, when Luke writes the Acts of the Apostles, he says that the ascension took place forty days after Easter (Acts 1:9-11). But in the Acts of the Apostles Luke is also telling us the story of Pentecost, a Jewish feast celebrated fifty days after Passover, which we do not hear about in the gospel. So that might be part of the reason Luke gives us the extended time frame in Acts, because it brings the narrative forward to Pentecost.

Luke is keen to indicate both in the gospel and in Acts that there was a time when the resurrection appearances to the disciples came to an end. After that time Jesus would be known in the “breaking of the bread” (Luke 24:35; NABRE).

So, according to the Gospel of Luke, the story has come full circle. What began in the temple with the appearance to Zechariah has now been completed. The disciples are left praising God in the temple for the wondrous works God has done in and through Jesus. No longer will they witness the risen Christ, but from now on, they know him in the breaking of the bread.

The ascension, then, is not so much about a physically present Jesus floating up and up into the clouds as it is a theologically sophisticated concept proclaiming his eternal presence with the Father in glory. When we take this image too literally we miss the theological truth it attempts to convey. As we live the paschal mystery we are reminded that rising with Christ is rising to new life, no longer to be subject to death. Rising with Christ is rising to glory with the Father. This is much more profound and sophisticated than flying through the sky without wings.
Let us remember in our Prayers...

Those who are sick or who suffer in any way, especially the homebound and the elderly, that God will assist them in their time of need and that they may find comfort and peace in Him.

Those who have died, the deceased of our parish, and especially those who have no one to pray for them.

May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. May the Perpetual Light Shine upon them.

We are sincerely grateful for your financial stewardship supporting our various parish needs.

THIS WEEKEND’S 2ND COLLECTION

CATHOLIC COMMUNICATIONS CAMPAIGN

The Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) is an opportunity to help people across the United States and around the world connect with Christ. For example, the island of Samar in the Philippines is home to nearly two million people, about 90% of whom are Catholic. Many live in remote villages outside the reach of television and the Internet. Instead, radio is a critical source of information. The Catholic Church has provided the people of Samar with spiritual programming through a dedicated radio station for 20 years. But in 2013, Typhoon Haiyan hit the island. It destroyed the entire radio station. The community has been unable to fund a new station, leaving hundreds of thousands without access to spiritual messages. Your support for the Catholic Communication Campaign is now helping the local diocese to rebuild the station. Because of you, people can once again hear radio programs that deepen their faith. You have given our brothers and sisters access to spiritual resources that they have lived too long without.

A PRAYER FOR OUR GRADUATES

Heavenly Father,
Give grace and courage to our students who have worked hard and now greet this special time graduation.

We thank you for protecting and guiding them to this point.

Inspire the graduates to put to good use all the knowledge, skills and gospel values learned through their education while at St. Philip the Apostle School.

Most importantly, as they face unknown challenges moving on, help them to keep dear the greatest wisdom of all—that of knowing You and the power of the Cross!

We ask that you continue to bless these graduates with love, protection, mercy, strength and wisdom.

We ask this through Christ our Lord,
Amen

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

How do we find our way through life and discover who we really are? It is easy to get distracted by life's preoccupations and worldly constructs. We can avoid dealing with deeper questions simply by being absorbed in life’s demands and the roles we are asked to play. Is it important to us that we come from God and have our identity in Him? The world cannot succeed in telling us who we are. Only God can. Only through Jesus’s resurrection can we see clearly that he is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, and the bright morning star. It is by following his example that we can all become one with the Father and brought to perfection. We are designed to be one with God and united with one another as believers in Jesus Christ. When someone experiences our speech and actions, do they witness the fact that we truly believe this?

Special Second Collection for June 8 & 9, 2019

On June 8-9, Reverend Perry Henry, C.M. will speak at all Masses about the Kenya Mission of the Vincentians. The Vincentians follow Jesus Christ, evangelizing the poor, in the Spirit of their founder, Saint Vincent de Paul.

In Kenya, the Vincentian Fathers and Brothers educate and form priests, run a Woodworking program to train Kenyans with skills to support their families, and shepherd five parishes with 30 outstations bringing the sacraments to 30,000 people each week. They also help families and children with clean water, food, and medical care through several outreach centers. They are committed to bringing the Gospel to those in need.

We extend a warm welcome to Reverend Perry Henry as he shares his missionary work with us. Your support is most appreciated.
St. Philip’s School has embarked on a strategic planning process called Building Our Future Together – A Strategic Plan for St. Philip’s School. We’re planning today, so that we can continue to provide an affordable, high quality Catholic education to the children in our community for many years to come. Our efforts will be guided by the school’s Consultative Board that includes representatives from our school and parish communities. Everyone in our school and parish community will have an opportunity to share their ideas about the future of St. Philip’s School through an on-line survey, listening sessions, and community meetings. Our goal is to have a plan in place by the end of 2019. We want to hear from you!

Our strategic planning survey is now open for you to share your feedback, perspectives, and ideas. The survey will be open through June 6. You may access the survey through the following link or through paper surveys which will be available in the vestibule.

https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/StPhiliptheApostle

Paper surveys may be returned to the Parish Office, school, or the collection basket

Thank you for your thoughtful participation.

June has arrived and we need $7,057.64 to meet our goal before the end of the fiscal year. Help us get to the finish line by sending in your contribution today. No amount is too small.

Brochures are available at the back of the church for your convenience. We extend our gratitude and acknowledge the following supporters of this year’s Archdiocesan Annual Appeal thus far. Our assessment is: $38,971.64. As of May 28, 2019, we have raised: $31,615.00 in cash and pledges. Thank you for helping us.
