REFLECT AND RESPOND TO SCRIPTURE
THIS WEEK

First Reading - Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4 - The Prophet laments God is not listening to his cries for help. When have you ever lost faith that God doesn’t hear your prayers?

Second Reading - 2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14 - Paul offers Timothy consolation for the trials and tribulations experienced as a follower of Jesus Christ. We too must be reminded that through the Sacraments of Baptism & Confirmation we have the gifts of the Holy Spirit to help us live as discipies of Jesus Christ. We are not alone.

Gospel Reading - Luke 17:5-10 The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith.” Do you seek to increase your faith or deepen it?.

Next Week’s Readings (10-13-2019)
Prepare Your Heart & Mind for Next Week’s Encounter

First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17— I will no longer offer holocaust or sacrifice to any other god except to the Lord.

Psalm: 98:1-4 - The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13 - If we have died with him we shall also live with him.

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19 - “Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine?”
Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Philosophers and thinkers debate the meaning of justice and charity. Justice is often considered the doing or giving what is owed to another, for example, money, labor, or some other arrangement. On the other hand, charity is the gift one gives expecting nothing in return. A philosophical parlor game centers around the definition of charity. Can an act be considered charity if the doer expects a thank you? Or does the expectation of an expression of gratitude annul the act of charity, which is given expecting nothing in return?

The disciples have a simple request of Jesus today: “Increase our faith.” How many of us have made the same request? But what did the disciples mean by it? And what would we mean by it? Further, what is the point of the request?

In another example of hyperbole, Jesus responds by saying that if their faith was the size of a mustard seed (about the size of a sesame seed) they would be able to move trees. Now nobody, not even Jesus, moved trees. Significantly, there are other gospels where the claim is that they could with faith the size of a mustard seed move mountains (Mark 11:23; Matt 17:20). “Moving mountains” is a metaphor for doing the impossible. All things are possible for God. But apparently Luke thought that was hyperbole taken too far. For in this gospel the extend of faith is moving only trees. Mountains are not mentioned. Nevertheless, the point is simply that they have little faith, not even the size of a mustard seed.

Jesus continues his lesson with a demonstration of the proper attitude of a servant who does what he is told expecting nothing, not even gratitude, in return. The attitude, striking for us today, is proper for discipleship.

So the disciples’ query about increasing their faith brings a mild rebuke from Jesus, stating that their faith is smaller than the size of a mustard seed. Even so, they should simple carry out their mission without expecting even a thank you.

This “tough love” approach to discipleship may seem at odds with the Jesus that has been portrayed in much of the gospel. It’s as though he is sure to put the disciples in their place so they turn their attention away from their own wants, desires, and requests, and on to carrying out the mission of Jesus. This is the true call of discipleship, to serve the master rather than oneself. And upon offering and completing that service, they/servants, must have no expectations at all, not even a thank you.

This is a tall order. How many of us, upon performing an act of kindness, no matter how small, appreciate a word of gratitude. In fact, many of us likely expect that. But the story we have today presents a different standard. It would be good for us to reevaluate our role in this relationship. We are mere servants, carrying out the wishes of the Lord. When they are complete, we are happy simply to have done his bidding.
AUTUMN CHANTED MASS
You are invited to join our St. Philip’s Choir and participate in a Gregorian Chanted Mass on October 20th, during the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

Members from the Benedict XVI Institute will be here offering a workshop working with our choir and any interested parties who would like to learn the basics of this sacred form of sung prayer.

Practices will be held in our church at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesdays, October 8th and 15th in preparation for the sung Mass on October 20th, 10:30 a.m.

“Musicians and composers, conductors and singers of choirs, liturgical animators, can make a major contribution to the renewal, especially quality, of sacred music and liturgical chant.” -Pope Francis

All are welcome and invited to participate.
Call the Parish Office at 415-282-0141 if you have any questions.

Let’s Help Support Our Retired Priests:
Luncheon, Friday, October 11, 2019 @ 11:30 A.M.
Saint Mary’s Cathedral in San Francisco

We invite you to join us for 9th Annual Saint John Vianney Luncheon! The Luncheon benefits the Priests Retirement Fund, which covers medical expenses, assisted living, and nursing care for our retired priests. The special guest of honor this year will be Auxiliary Bishop Emeritus William J. Justice.

Since the first Luncheon in 2011, nearly $2 million has been raised, providing invaluable financial assistance to our retired Priests. In addition to this critical monetary support, the Luncheon also provides all of us with the unique opportunity to come together and demonstrate our gratitude to these men for their life's work and their unyielding devotion to all whom they serve. You can support our retired priests by attending the Luncheon or by making a donation directly to the Priests Retirement Fund.

If you wish to make a donation by check, please mail it to the following address:
Archdiocese of San Francisco
Priests Retirement Fund
One Peter Yorke Way
San Francisco, CA 94109

Our retired priests have spent their lives serving others, and it is now our turn to ensure that they are cared for as lovingly and with as much dignity as they have cared for others. Every contribution is greatly appreciated and helps ensure that our retired priests receive the quality care they deserve.

Please join us on Friday, October 11!

IT’S TIME FOR THE ANNUAL OCTOBER COUNT
Beginning with the weekend Masses of October 5 & 6 and for the rest of the month, please be aware our volunteer ushers will be discreetly going up and down the church side aisles taking an attendance of individuals at Mass.

This is annual headcount taken throughout all the parishes in our Archdiocese of San Francisco. Thank you for your patience.

The life and service of William J. Levada
William J. Levada was ordained a priest in St. Peter's Basilica on December 20, 1961. He worked as a parish priest in Los Angeles for five years, serving as the first Director of Continuing Education for the Clergy and teaching theology at St. John's Seminary School of Theology.

In 1976 he was appointed an Official of the Vatican Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith. In Rome, he taught theology at the Pontifical Gregorian University.

On 25 March 1983, Pope John Paul II appointed him auxiliary bishop of Los Angeles. He received his episcopal ordination on 12 May of the same year.

On 1 July 1986 he was promoted to the Archbishop's See of Portland in the State of Oregon. During his nine years of pastoral service in Portland, he devoted himself to priestly vocations and to improving the seminary at Mount Angel where he taught ecclesiology.

In 1995 he became Archbishop of San Francisco. From 1986 to 1993 he was the only American bishop on the editorial board of the Commission for the Catechism of the Catholic Church. He is the author of the Glossary published in the second English edition of the Catechism.

In 1997 he participated in the Special Assembly for America of the Synod of Bishops and was later appointed a member of the post-synodal council. During the year 2000 he was appointed bishop co-president of the Anglican-Catholic Dialogue of the United States of America (ARC-USA).

In 2003 he organized the celebration of the 150th anniversary of the Archdiocese of San Francisco and began the three-year presidency of the Committee of the United States Episcopal Conference on Doctrine.

In 2005 he was appointed Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith by Pope Benedict XVI, succeeding the then Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger. In 2006 he was created Cardinal in the Consistory of 24 March 2006.

Since 2012 he has been Prefect Emeritus of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, President Emeritus of the Pontifical Commission "Ecclesia Dei", President Emeritus of the Pontifical Biblical Commission and of the International Theological Commission.
Introducing Holy Hour and Eucharistic Adoration at St. Philip the Apostle Church

Beginning October, 2019, we will be offering a Holy Hour following the weekday Masses (excluding Tuesdays) and on weekends, after the Saturday 8:00 a.m. Mass and on Sundays after the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

ALL ARE WELCOME

What is a Holy Hour? Holy Hour is the Roman Catholic devotional tradition of spending an hour in Eucharistic adoration in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

“Christian life is expressed in the fulfilling of the greatest commandment, that is to say, in the love of God and neighbor, and this love finds its source in the Blessed Sacrament. . . Eucharistic worship is therefore precisely the expression of that love which is the authentic and deepest characteristic of the Christian vocation. This worship springs from the love and serves the love to which we all are called in Jesus Christ. A living fruit of this worship is the perfecting of the image of God that we bear within us. . . As we thus become adorers of the Father ‘in spirit and truth,’ we mature in an ever-fuller union with Christ, we are ever more united to him, and we are ever more in harmony with him. . . We must always have this reality before our eyes.”
Saint John Paul II

How to Pray the Rosary

Using beads to count prayers is an ancient tradition, and not unique to the Catholic faith. The rosary as we know it today has evolved over time from its original loop of fifty beads marked out three times (to account for 150 prayers representing all the psalms) to its present configuration of five decades with some additional prayers.

The rosary is begun by reciting the Apostles’ Creed while holding the cross that hangs from the loop. The Lord's Prayer is prayed on the first bead on the way up from the cross to the loop joiner. Then three Hail Mary's are prayed on the next three beads (often interpreted as prayers for an increase of faith, hope, and charity), followed by a Glory Be.

Another Lord's Prayer opens the first decade, which continues with ten Hail Mary's, and concludes with a Glory Be, prayed while holding the chain between the final Hail Mary of the decade and the next bead for the Lord's Prayer.

The prayer and meditation of the five decades is directed to one of the mysteries of which there are four sets (Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious, and Luminous).

There are pamphlets at the back of the church that offer scriptural meditations for each of the beads as well, providing an opportunity to enrich this traditional prayer.

Our Lady of the Rosary

The Battle of Lepanto was a five-hour naval battle between the main fleet of the Ottoman Empire and the fleet of the Holy League, a group of maritime states of southern European Catholic countries. It was fought on October 7, 1571, in the northern waters off the coast of Greece. The Ottoman Empire fleet was defeated by the Holy League.

Pope Pius V knew that the forces of the Holy League were much smaller than the fleet of the Ottoman Empire. Consequently, the pope called on all of Christian Europe to pray the rosary for success against the Ottomans. He led a rosary procession in Rome for this success. After the defeat of the Ottomans at Lepanto on October 7, he called for a feast day in honor of the defeat and called the day Our Lady of Victory. In 1573, Pope Gregory XIII changed the title of the feast to Our Lady of the Holy Rosary. Then two centuries later Pope Clement XI extended the feast to all the Latin Rite, laid it in the Roman Catholic Calendar of Saints in 1716, and placed it on the first Sunday in October.

When we celebrate Our Lady of the Holy Rosary this fall, remember all the fallen soldiers of all the wars. Pray for peace and for the reign of Christ to bring all people into right relationships.

PARISH SERVICES

ANOINTING OF THE SICK
This Sacrament is for those who are elderly, seriously ill, or scheduled for surgery. Contact the Parish Office to schedule the anointing in Church or at home. If in hospital, or care facility, please request the Catholic Chaplain or a priest from the Parish in which the hospital or care facility is located, through the nursing station.

BAPTISM
Parents wishing to baptize children should call the parish office to schedule the baptism and to schedule participation in our baptismal preparation program. Please call two months before you wish the baptism. Parents must make an appointment to attend the preparation session. Godparents may attend if they wish. As of January, 2019, these sessions will take place the first Saturday of each month at 9:00 a.m. The preparation maybe done before the birth of the child. Please call the Parish office at 415-282-0141 for more information.

FAITH FORMATION
Sacramental preparation is a one year program here at St. Philips. First Reconciliation and First Communion are celebrated in the 2nd grade. However, we offer accommodations for those older. Classes are held in the chapel on Sundays from 9:15 to 10:15 a.m. A copy of the child’s baptismal certificate will be required upon registration. Please call the Parish office for complete details. 415-282-0141

Our Confirmation Program is designed for those youth entering the 8th grade or already in high school. These sessions begin in the fall. You must provide baptismal and First Eucharist certificates. To register call the Parish Office 415-282-0141

R.C.I.A.—Adults wishing to explore the Catholic faith are welcome to attend an Inquiry Session in the fall. Classes are held on Sundays from 9:15-10:15 a.m. in the Resource Center building (the old convent). Call the Parish Office at 415-282-0141 for a registration form.

HOMEBOUND MINISTRY
Call the Parish Office to arrange for visitation and the gift of Holy Communion from one of our Extraordinary Ministers for your friends and family members who are unable to attend Mass due to illness or hospitalization. This is a beautiful ministry which allows for the Church to reach out to those who are homebound and share faith and friendship.

MARRIAGE
Couples are asked to call the Parish Office at least six months prior to their intended wedding date to schedule an appointment with the Pastoral Staff to begin their marriage preparation journey.
