Next Sunday’s Readings (2-23-2020)

Prepare Your Heart & Mind for Next Week’s Encounter

First Reading: Leviticus 19:1-2, 17-18 - Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against any of your people.

Psalm: 103:1-2, 3-4, 8, 10, 12-13 - The Lord is kind and merciful.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 3:16-23 - Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

Holy Hour and Eucharistic Adoration at St. Philip the Apostle Church

We offer a Holy Hour following the weekday Masses (excluding Tuesdays) and on weekends, after the Saturday 8:00 a.m. Mass and on Sundays after the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

ALL ARE WELCOME
Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

The first reading from Sirach highlights the complete freedom of human beings in their relationship with God. Though God desires the good for us and all others, he does not compel us to do that which is right. Instead we are given the choice of whether to follow the commandments that lead to life or to reject them. In the gospel this choice is broken down even further.

To those people who want to be right with God, but wonder what is the minimum required to achieve that relationship, Jesus has an answer. Jesus takes certain aspects of the law of Moses and expands them. Rather than command not to kill, Jesus says, do not grow angry. Rather than a command not to commit adultery, Jesus says not to look another with lust. In other words, the Mosaic Law is not simply the bare minimum we need to do to be right with God. Instead, we need to go above and beyond the letter of the law if we are to be followers of Christ. Merely fulfilling the minimum is not enough.

When Jesus responds in this way, we may crave a return to the minimum. How can I keep myself from growing angry, which is a natural human response to perceived injustice? The standard Jesus sets may seem impossible to realize. The statement about plucking out one’s eye is certainly hyperbole, and recognized as such by the early Church. The standard established by Jesus fulfills the law rather than abolishing it. Jesus’ teaching goes to the heart of the matter. His advice to let “yes” mean “yes” and “no” mean “no” is a clear statement to that effect. Disciples of Jesus speak the truth without equivocation.

So when we want to ask ourselves, “What’s the least I have to do?” we may need to reconsider the question. When we desire a relationship with Christ for its own sake, and not simply because we’ve been somehow coerced, a life of faith flows naturally. We no longer count the minimum but instead live in a relationship of trust, fidelity, and love.

Are we interested in the bare minimum required from the laws laid forth in the Ten Commandments? If, therefore, we get through life without committing murder, entering adulterous relationships or telling outright lies, have we lived up to our full potential?
Lord, Send Out your Spirit and Renew the Face of the Earth—Psalm 104
