Let us remember in our Prayers…
Those who are sick or who suffer in any way, especially the homebound and the elderly, that God will assist them in their time of need and that they may find comfort and healing in Christ.
Those who have died, the deceased of our parish, and especially those who have no one to pray for them.
May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. May the Perpetual Light shine upon them.

Next Sunday’s Readings (5-10-2020)

Prepare Your Heart & Mind for Next Week’s Encounter

First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 6:1-7 - Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word.

Psalm: 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19 - Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:4-9 - The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone, and a stone that will make people stumble, and a rock that will make them fall.
They stumble by disobeying the word, as is their destiny.

Gospel: John 14:1-12 - Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father.
Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

We are now in the Fourth Sunday of Easter and this week we do not have a resurrection appearance story. The church gives us instead this parable or, in the words of the gospel, a “figure of speech” from Jesus himself. Though the term is not used in these ten verses, this is the beginning of the “Good Shepherd” parabolic discourse. This section might be more properly called the “Gate” discourse, wherein Jesus says he is the gate through which the sheep enter and are saved. The distinction of Jesus as gate is significant and should not immediately be conflated with Jesus as Good Shepherd, which is stated explicitly later in this chapter. Here we see Jesus as the “Gate” with an accompanying image of the gatekeeper.

The images in this figure of speech are rooted in antiquity. A sheepfold, for example, is typically a small of low stone fence/wall that is open to the sky. The proper way to enter is via the gate. Thus, Jesus says the one who climbs over the stone wall is “a thief and a robber.” The means to entry is the gate. Further, the sheep will hear the voice of the gatekeeper and follow him, but they do not recognize and will not follow the voice of strangers. Apparently, this imagery went over the heads of Jesus’ audience so he said explicitly, “I am the gate.”

St. John’s gospel never uses the term parable; that is a term used in the Synoptic Gospels. As we saw above, the evangelist says that Jesus taught in a “figure of speech.” Rather than parables, in St. John’s gospel we might say Jesus speaks in “parabolic discourse.” The difference might seem to be splitting hairs, but what it means is that rather than saying “the kingdom of heaven is like…” Jesus says, “I am …” So, for example, rather than saying, “The kingdom of heaven is like a sheepfold and the gate through which the sheep enter and leave,” Jesus says, “I am the gate.” Similarly, Jesus will say, “I am the Good Shepherd,” “I am the Vine,” “I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life,” or “I am the Resurrection.” All of these are figures of speech and parabolic discourses.

We recall in this Easter season that Jesus is the gate through which we are saved. Jesus is the means by which we enter the sheepfold, paradise, heaven itself.
The Archdiocesan Mental Health Ministry has posted on its webpage an article and a video that can help with stress and anxiety during this unprecedented time of pandemic. The article and the video recommend, and demonstrate, the practice of prayer. In addition to these new additions, the Mental Health webpage has many other resources, and contact information for mental health consultations and interventions in the three counties of the Archdiocese. PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Thank you for your son, Jesus, our Good Shepherd, who leads us to fullness of Life.
By our Baptism, we are called by name to continue the mission of Jesus.
Give us the grace to listen with an open heart to the voice of Jesus and to respond generously with a joyful spirit.
Strengthen the men and women you called to serve through marriage, the single life, the diaconate, priesthood, and consecrated life. Guide all who are discerning their Christian vocation.
In gratitude we offer this prayer through Jesus and the Holy Spirit, united with you forever. Amen

MASS FOR THE PEOPLE

Every Sunday and holy day a pastor celebrates one Mass for the people entrusted to his care (canon 534). If the pastor cannot do so for a legitimate reason, he may ask another priest to lead it, or he may celebrate the Mass himself on another occasion. If the pastor is responsible for more than one parish on Sundays and holy days, he may celebrate just one Mass for the intentions of all those people. In Latin, this Mass is called the missa pro populo.

Parish bulletins like ours commonly publish the requested intentions for Masses throughout the week. But each weekend one of the Sunday Masses will be designated for this special purpose. It carries a title like “for the people,” “for the parish,” or “Pro populo.” This priest and parish receive no offering for this Mass. It is part of the pastor’s responsibilities to the parish.

This custom reminds the parish community of several values. The pastor has spiritual care for his flock, which includes praying for them and their intentions. The people can see that their priest is responding when they ask him to pray for their concerns. Sundays and holy days are honored as the special days on which the community gathers to praise God, share communion, and hold one another in prayer.

At Masses for the people, the pastor is obliged to pray for the parish. Especially at those Masses, it’s a good idea for the people to pray for one another as well.

Copyright©2004 Resource Publications, Inc.
The current “stay home” order we are observing in the Bay Area presents challenges us to observe the third precept of the Decalogue, “Remember the Sabbath day – keep it holy,” in ways other than by attending Sunday Mass. Since the celebration of Mass in public is not possible at this time, our people are excused from keeping the Lord’s Day holy by attending Sunday Mass. But since none of us are exempt from any of the Ten Commandments, I invite you to see this as an opportunity to be creative in finding ways to keep holy the Sabbath at home. Here are some ideas for how to do so.

1. Attend Mass remotely by watching a televised Sunday Mass

   There are many possibilities for viewing the celebration of Mass, both via television and online, and both live and recorded. Below are some of those opportunities.

   As we have announced to the public, parishes that have the technology to do so will livestream the Masses celebrated in their parish churches in private (i.e., only the priest and one altar server present, no one else). Most appropriately, then, people in parishes with livestreamed Masses can remotely attend their parish Mass with their pastor in this way.

   St. Mary’s Cathedral will celebrate these Masses in private according to its established Mass schedule: Sunday Masses at 7:30am, 9:00am, 11:00am, 1:00pm (Spanish) and 5:30pm Saturday; weekday Masses at 7:30am and 12:10pm. Although these Masses will be celebrated with only the priest and one altar server present, as all of the other parish Masses in the Archdiocese, all of these Masses will be livestreamed so that our people may attend remotely at home. I myself will celebrate every Sunday at either the 11:00am or 1:00pm Mass (beginning this Sunday at 11:00am), as well as regularly during the week.

   There is a locally recorded Sunday Mass celebrated by Msgr. Harry Schlitt which can be viewed on television and on YouTube.

   The Catholic broadcasting network EWTN also has many possibilities for viewing Masses, both live and recorded, both in English and in Spanish.

   Information on how to access all of these Masses is found here: https://sfarch.org/livestreams.

2. Make a spiritual Communion

   According to an ancient practice, faithful who are properly disposed to receive sacramental Communion but are not able to do so may make an act of “spiritual Communion.” Examples may be a mother who must stay at home to attend to a sick child, a Mass at which the Eucharistic species has run out before everyone has communicated, and travelling where there is no Sunday Mass available. More information on spiritual Communion can be found here:

3. Meditate on the Sunday readings

   Many resources are now available which have the Sunday readings and meditations or commentaries to go along with them. An excellent resource in print is the popular Magnificat booklet. Magnificat is, in fact, providing free subscriptions at this time in both English and Spanish (cf. us.magnificat.net/free or latina.magnificat.net/gratis). The readings for each day of the year are also available online in both English and Spanish on the homepage of the website of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (http://www.usccb.org).

4. Pray the rosary

   The rosary is, essentially, a biblical prayer, as it is a means of meditating on the mysteries of our salvation as revealed in the life of our Lord and our Blessed Mother in the Gospels, and most of the prayers come directly from the Gospel. Moreover, the traditional 150 Hail Mary’s (five decades each for the Joyful, Sorrowful and Glorious mysteries) were seen as correlated to the 150 Psalms in the Book of Psalms: while monks chanted the entire Psalter at different hours of the day throughout the week, the faithful could keep the spirit of this monastic discipline in their busy lives in the world by praying the rosary. Of course, St. John Paul II has now enhanced this cherished Catholic prayer by adding the Luminous Mysteries: mysteries at key moments in our Lord’s public ministry that reveal his truth and glory. Many resources are also available to enrich the praying of the rosary, such as the Scriptural rosary. It is good to pray the rosary in a group as well as individually, especially on the Lord’s Day which focuses on our communion as many members in the one Body of Christ.

   The great hardship the unavailability of Mass in person and other Church services and events will cause to our devout people is abundantly clear to me. It is a sign of your deep and abiding faith, and I cannot help but smile when I think how pleasing this must be to our Lord. But it is also clear to me how pleased he will be by our making these sacrifices in order to protect our own health and that of the others.
