Reflecting on the Gospel

Dear Parishioners and Guests,

Flip Wilson was an African-American comedian-actor, the first to have his own variety show, The Flip Wilson Show, dating to the early 1970’s. One of his delightful characters was Geraldine Jones. In a famous routine where Geraldine is dodging responsibility for buying a new dress, she names all the lures of the devil who is tempting her: you would look good in it, it’s on sale, it’s your size, it has a lot of flowers, no charge to try it on, the devil shoved me in the door.

She summarizes by saying, “The devil made me do it.” It became her catchphrase whenever she did not want to face up to having made an inappropriate choice. Ah, it’s so easy to say “The devil made me do it.” It’s so easy to blame everything and everybody else for choices we make that change us not for the better, that hurt others, that lead us down a destructive path. How easily Jesus could have turned those stones into bread to satisfy his hunger! How easily he could have used his divine power to command all the heavenly bodies to support and protect him. How easily he could have been given “all the kingdoms of the world.”

These temptations did not fool Jesus. He was not interested in the lures of this world. His kingdom was not of this world. His work was not self-promotion, but the glory of his Father and the salvation of those he came to serve. His mission was to tempt us to let go of ourselves, to come to God with unified hearts, to embrace the self-emptying that brings the greatest wealth: Life everlasting.

The Spirit led Jesus into the desert to be tempted by the devil to exercise self-serving power, to preserve his well-being, to seek worldly wealth. That same Spirit leads us into the desert of ourselves to encounter the demons within us, to encounter the Father’s mercy and forgiveness, to encounter Jesus calling us to align our lives more closely with his. We are first grated onto Christ at our baptism. We are plunged into the cleansing waters to be raised up to new Life. We commit ourselves to goodness and profess our relationship to God. The strength of our baptismal commitment to God must be honed in the desert of ourselves where, stripped of all that distracts us, we stand naked and hungry before Truth. Only then, can we be transformed. Only then are we transformed by God into beloved daughters and sons, sisters and brothers in Christ.

Lent is not a time for us to withstand temptation alone. Rather, it is a wonderful time to get involved with others spiritually, and help each other to grow in goodness and the ability to resist temptation and come to a deeper realization of what our baptism entails. We are baptized into a community—The Body of Christ. With our common identity in Christ, helping another resist temptation is, in effect, helping ourselves grow, helping ourselves to be transformed into more perfect members of Christ’s Body.

Most of us tend to keep our spiritual growth and struggles pretty much to ourselves. One marvelous way to help each other is to take some time with those with whom we are in significant relationships to do some in-depth faith-sharing. When we share our own temptations as well as spiritual blessings with others, we are not alone in choosing and serving this God who gives us life—at creation and through “the one Jesus Christ.”

This Week’s Lenten Prayer

Bring us back to you.
This week we pray for a renewal of our lives.
We are beginning to be more attentive and alert.
We are trying new patterns.
The difficulties we encounter keep us humble.

Our desire is clear.
We want the “self-sacrificing love of Christ” - which brings us mercy and healing - to be “reproduced in our lives.”

In our journey, we seek to savor the meaning of Jesus’ self-less love, that we might reflect that love to others.
At the end of our journey, we will renew our baptismal promises.

Dying with Jesus in baptism, we have a new life in him.
Today, we desire nothing less than God’s re-creating us - breathing new life into us.

Complete Lenten Fast & Abstinence Information

♦ ABSTINENCE: Everyone fourteen years of age and older is bound to abstain from meat on ASH WEDNESDAY, the FRIDAYS of Lent, and GOOD FRIDAY.

♦ FAST: Everyone eighteen years of age and older but under the age of sixty is also bound to fast on ASH WEDNESDAY and GOOD FRIDAY. On these two days, the law of fast allows only one full meal a day, but does not prohibit taking some food during the day, so long as this does not constitute another full meal. Drinking liquids during the day is permitted. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. In doubt concerning fast or abstinence, a priest assigned to pastoral ministry or confessor should be consulted. In the spirit of penance, the faithful should not lightly excuse themselves from this obligation.

♦ Note on St. Patrick's Day, Friday March 17th: The Feast of St. Patrick is a Solemnity within the Archdiocese of San Francisco (since Patrick is the Principal Co-Patron of the Archdiocese). March 17, 2017, is a Friday. While normally Lenten observance requires abstinence from meat on the Fridays of Lent, canon law includes the exception: “unless a solemnity should fall on a Friday” (Canon 1251); therefore, within the bounds of the Archdiocese of San Francisco, the faithful are not required to abstain from meat March 17, 2017
