Good Shepherd Sunday

From the Desk of Father Stephen

Dear Friends:

Christ is Risen!

Today, Good Shepherd Sunday, is a special celebration of World Day of Prayer for Vocations. In 1963, Pope Paul VI established this day of prayer for the world-wide Church to honor all Christian vocations. In Baptism, we are called by name and offered a special gift of a Christian vocation. We pray that we are open to God’s call and ready to accept the gift. Jesus, the Good Shepherd, is with us to guide and protect us on our life journey. You are invited to use the following prayer to pray for vocations to Holy Orders (for Bishops, Priests, and Deacons), the Religious Life, the Married Life, the Single Life and all the ministries of the Church.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Thank you for your son, Jesus, our Good Shepherd, who leads us to fullness of Life.

By our Baptism, we are called by name to continue the mission of Jesus. Give us the grace to listen with an open heart to the voice of Jesus and to respond generously with a joyful spirit.

Strengthen the men and women you called to serve through marriage, the single life, the diaconate, priesthood, and consecrated life. Guide all who are discerning their Christian vocation.

In gratitude we offer this prayer through Jesus and the Holy Spirit, united with you forever. Amen

Yes! Truly He is Risen!

Peace,
Father Stephen
Let us remember in our Prayers…

Those who are sick or who suffer in any way, especially the homebound and the elderly, that God will assist them in their time of need and that they may find comfort and healing in Christ.

Fourth Sunday of Easter—May 7, 2017

This is a week to pray with joy for the love God showers on us and for the presence of Jesus' warm caring for us in our everyday lives. We are not perfect. We are not sin-free.

But we are loved by our Risen God - and that is what we celebrate in this season.

Dear Parishioners and Guests,

Sheep can be both dumb and stubborn. Oblivious to danger, they will stray from the safety of numbers in the fold and the care of their shepherd. A vigilant shepherd will go after the sheep. A shepherd’s crook is used when a sheep won’t listen to a shepherd’s voice and is in danger. The crook can pull, push, or drive the straying sheep to the safety of the fold. Straying often, begin driven back—eventually a sheep learns the shepherd’s voice. This gospel is about sheep and shepherd. But not just any sheep, nor any shepherd. Jesus is our Good Shepherd, and we are the sheep he cares for and keeps from danger.

There is only one true Shepherd. This “shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out”—nay, he drives them out. Moreover, the shepherd “walks ahead” of the sheep, leading and guiding them. Thus, we have a two-way relationship with our Shepherd. On the one hand, he drives us out of our comfort zone to risk being his disciples. When we are reluctant to go, he gives us a push, sometimes prodding us to go even where we do not wish. Taking up our Shepherd's mission can be as dangerous for us as it was for him. On the other hand, the Shepherd goes before us with guidance and care. Even when we face danger—face ridicule, rejection, denial—he is there to protect us and keep us faithful to his mission. Do we hear him calling us by name? Are we willing to be driven by him? To be led by him?

We know our true Shepherd from strangers or “thieves and robbers” by the sound of his voice calling each of us by name. Yes, he calls each of us by name. Each of us has something unique to give to the church to build up the Shepherd's Body and continue his saving mission. If we refuse to hear his voice (as did the Pharisees in this gospel), his mission does not move forward as quickly and surely as it might. Each of us is important. Each of us has a name. The Pharisees refused to listen, refused to be driven to fulfill their true mission to God’s people. Unlike the Pharisees, we are to heed our Shepherd’s voice driving each of us out personally to continue his saving mission, his voice guiding and leading each of us personally to abundant Life.

In this gospel Jesus promises us his continued care and protection. He also tells us why we can rely on him: as our Shepherd-guide, Jesus seeks only our good while protecting us from the real harm of “thieves and robbers.” It is crucial that we listen to the voice of the Shepherd and stay close to him for protection, yes. But more importantly, we stay close to him because he guides us to the abundant Life he wishes to give us. Jesus assures us twice—”Amen, amen, I say to you”—of the strength of his promise and the clarity of his mission. He is our sure guide. We must hear and follow our Shepherd. Hearing him calling us by name must elicit an active Amen response from each of us.

PRAYER

You, Lord, are my shepherd. Thank you for coming so close that I know your love in my life. Help me get close enough to my sisters and brothers that I smell like them, because I live with them as lovingly as you have chosen to live with us.

Mass for the People

Every Sunday and holy day a pastor celebrates one Mass for the people entrusted to his care (canon 534). If the pastor cannot do so for a legitimate reason, he may ask another priest to lead it, or he may celebrate the Mass himself on another occasion. If the pastor is responsible for more than one parish on Sundays and holy days, he may celebrate just one Mass for the intentions of all those people. In Latin, this Mass is called the missa pro populo.

Parish bulletins like ours commonly publish the requested intentions for Masses throughout the week. But each weekend one of the Sunday Masses will be designated for this special purpose. It carries a title like “for the people,” “for the parish,” or “Pro populo.” This priest and parish receive no offering for this Mass. It is part of the pastor’s responsibilities to the parish.

This custom reminds the parish community of several values. The pastor has spiritual care for his flock, which includes praying for them and their intentions. The people can see that their priest is responding when they ask him to pray for their concerns. Sundays and holy days are honored as the special days on which the community gathers to praise God, share communion, and hold one another in prayer.

At Masses for the people, the pastor is obliged to pray for the parish. Especially at those Masses, it’s a good idea for the people to pray for one another as well.

May 10 - St. Damien de Veuster

When Joseph de Veuster was born in Tremelo, Belgium, in 1840, few people in Europe had any firsthand knowledge of leprosy, Hansen’s disease. By the time he died at the age of 49, people all over the world knew about this disease because of him. They knew that human compassion could soften the ravages of this disease.

Forced to quit school at age 13 to work on the family farm, Joseph entered the Congregation of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary six years later, taking the name of a fourth-century physician and martyr. When his brother Pamphile, a priest in the same congregation, fell ill and was unable to go to the Hawaiian Islands as assigned, Damien quickly volunteered in his place. In May 1864, two months after arriving in his new mission, Damien was ordained a priest in Honolulu and assigned to the island of Hawaii.

In 1873, he went to the Hawaiian government’s leper colony on the island of Moloka’i, set up seven years earlier. Part of a team of four chaplains taking that assignment for three months each year, Damien soon volunteered to remain permanently, caring for the people’s physical, medical, and spiritual needs. In time, he became their most effective advocate to obtain promised government support.

Soon the settlement had new houses and a new church, school and orphanage. Morale improved considerably. A few years later, he succeeded in getting the Franciscan Sisters of Syracuse, led by Mother Marianne Cope, to help staff this colony in Kalaupapa.

Damien contracted Hansen’s disease and died of its complications. As requested, he was buried in Kalaupapa, but in 1936 the Belgian government succeeded in having his body moved to Belgium. Part of Damien’s body was returned to his beloved Hawaiian brothers and sisters after his beatification in 1995.

When Hawaii became a state in 1959, it selected Damien as one of its two representatives in the Statuary Hall at the U.S. Capitol. Damien was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI on October 11, 2009.

The Children’s Liturgy of the Word is a program that St. Philip's offers for young families and children at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Children, preschool through first grade, are invited to step into the chapel after the Opening Prayer to hear and discuss the Gospel in a way which is meaningful to them and work together on an art project, play, or other type of interactive activity. The children go back to Mass after the Prayers of the Faithful. The Children's Liturgy of the Word is facilitated by parent volunteers. All children in preschool through 1st grade are invited. Parents do not need to come, but you are welcome if you'd like.

Would you like to volunteer with the Children’s Liturgy of the Word Ministry? If so, please contact Nicole McGrath at nicolemgrath72@gmail.com
