June 18, 2017 - The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

From the Desk of Father Stephen

Dear Friends:

Today’s Solemnity reminds us to honor Jesus, the Son of God, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, in the Eucharist, the Consecrated Bread and Wine of Communion. Let us remember that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist. Let us remember to honor and respect this Real Presence of Jesus in our midst. Let us consider, reflect upon and pray this traditional prayer.

ANIMA CHRISTI

- Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
- Body of Christ, save me.
- Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
- Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
- Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
- O good Jesus, hear me.
- Within thy wounds hide me.
- Permit me not to be separated from thee.
- From the malicious enemy defend me.
- In the hour of my death call me, and bid me come to thee,
- that, with thy saints, I may praise thee,
- Forever and ever. Amen

Peace,
Fr. Stephen H. Howell, Pastor

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Artisan breads have become very popular. Some small bakeshops specialize in them and only sell these special loaves. Supermarkets may have a dedicated section in the bread aisle for artisan bread. Artisan bread may be basic consisting of only flour, water, salt, and yeast; or it may be flavored with herbs and other ingredients added. What all breads that are called “artisan” have in common is that they are not mass-produced, but crafted. Making this bread is an art. Each loaf is unique. The gospel this Sunday is about bread. However, this bread is surely not mass-produced in some factory. It is not even artfully crafted in some small bakery or home kitchen, as special as that is. This bread is unique, unequaled, unsurpassed in its nourishment. This bread is more than a staple of life. It is Life.

In the gospel Jesus is the bread that is the living bread; this is all we need to “live forever.” The reasoning is simple enough: by partaking of Jesus’ Body and Blood we become what we eat—we become the “one body” in which we all share. This is the “Holy Communion” that assures us of who we are as baptized Christians—the Body of Christ. This is why Eucharist is (and remains throughout our life) a sacrament of initiation: we are constantly being fed on the Bread of Life and constantly drawn more deeply into being who we are—members of the one Body of Christ.

As members of Christ’s Body, we are to be his life poured out in our everyday good living. We are to give our life—his life! unreservedly for others. The Sacramental eating and drinking Jesus’ Body and Blood is the culmination and ritual manifestation of the self-giving of our everyday living. It is our strength for choosing to be who this bread makes us to be: the living Body of Christ given for others. The challenge ultimately issued by this solemnity is to be as giving as Jesus is. This is the way to eternal Life. Jesus giving himself as living bread is a foretaste of the Life that one day we will share eternally with him. Jesus I the “living bread that came down from heaven.” When we eat this bread we “will live forever.” The Life this bread gives is eternal.

Heaven is above. Forever is beyond. Life is fleeting. But Life eternal is here and now in Jesus, “the living bread” who “came down from heaven” to give himself “for the life of the world.” We who eat his flesh and drink his blood have eternal Life now. Heaven is not above. Forever is not beyond. Life is not fleeting. Because Jesus is living bread.
Let us remember in our Prayers…

Those who are sick or who suffer in any way, especially the homebound and the elderly, that God will assist them in their time of need and that they may find comfort and healing in Christ.

We are sincerely grateful for your support

Due to an early printing schedule from our vendor, stewardship report will be reported in a future bulletin.

Let us remember in our Prayers…

Those who are sick or who suffer in any way, especially the homebound and the elderly, that God will assist them in their time of need and that they may find comfort and healing in Christ.

ANOEINTING OF THE SICK

This Sacrament is for those who are elderly, seriously ill, or scheduled for surgery. Contact the Parish Office to schedule the anointing in Church or at home. If in hospital, or care facility, please request the Catholic Chaplain or a priest from the Parish in which the hospital or care facility is located, through the nursing station.

BAPTISM

Parents wishing to baptize children should call the parish office to schedule the baptism and to schedule participation in our baptismal preparation program. Please call two months before you wish the baptism. Parents must make an appointment to attend the preparation session. Godparents may attend if they wish. These sessions normally take place the first Tuesday of each month at 7:00 p.m. The preparation maybe done before the birth of the child. Please call the Parish office at 415-282-0141 for more information.

FAITH FORMATION

Sacramental preparation is a one year program here at St. Philips. First Reconciliation and First Communion are celebrated in the 2nd grade. However, we offer accommodations for those older. Classes are held in the chapel on Sundays from 9:15 to 10:15 a.m. A copy of the child’s baptismal certificate will be required upon registration. Please call the Parish office for complete details. 415-282-0141

Our Confirmation Program is designed for those youth entering the 8th grade. These sessions begin in the fall. You must provide baptismal and First Eucharist certificates. To register call the Parish Office 415-282-0141

R.C.I.A.—Adults wishing to explore the Catholic faith are welcome to attend an Inquiry Session in the fall. Classes are held on Sundays frim 9:15-10:15 a.m.in the Resource Center building (the old convent). Call the Parish Office at 415-282-0141 for a registration form.

HOMEBOUND MINISTRY

Call the Parish Office to arrange for visitation and the gift of Holy Communion from one of our Extraordinary Ministers for your friends and family members who are unable to attend Mass due to illness or hospitalization. This is a beautiful ministry which allows for the Church to reach out to those who are homebound and share faith and friendship.

MARRIAGE

Couples are asked to call the Parish Office at least six months prior to their intended wedding date to schedule an appointment with the Pastoral Staff to begin their marriage preparation journey.

RECONCILIATION

Saturdays 4:15—4:45 p.m. or by appointment

Come and join us for this 1952 film about the three young shepherd children in the remote Portuguese mountain town Fatima reported seeing a vision in 1917 of "a beautiful lady" who spoke to them of strife, war and peace and the love of Jesus. Soon the word spread, and throngs, teetering on mobs, gathered near the site for a glimpse of what they believed to be Mary, mother of Jesus. The children remained steadfast in their account, despite threats from the church and the government, and the final appearance of the lady, on Oct. 13, 1917, was accompanied by strange apparitions in the sky that have yet to be explained by science.

Please RSVP to the Parish Office so we can arrange proper seating and refreshment arrangements. 415-282-0141

Happy Father’s Day!

God and Father of all creation, we come before you today with humble hearts. You are our model of a loving father. When we fail and fall short of your expectations, you are always there at the end of the day with open arms, ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up.

We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others. Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children. Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures. Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance.

We ask all this in the name of Jesus.

Amen

THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

June 24

Jesus called John the greatest of all those who had preceded him: “I tell you, among those born of women, no one is greater than John….” But John would have agreed completely with what Jesus added: “[Y]et the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he” (Luke 7:28).

John spent his time in the desert, an ascetic. He began to announce the coming of the Kingdom, and to call everyone to a fundamental reformation of life. His purpose was to prepare the way for Jesus. His baptism, he said, was for repentance. But one would come who would baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire. John was not worthy even to untie his sandals. His attitude toward Jesus was: “He must increase; I must decrease” (John 3:30).

John was humbled to find among the crowd of sinners who came to be baptized the one whom he already knew to be the Messiah. “I need to be baptized by you” (Matthew 3:14b). But Jesus insisted, “Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness” (Matthew 3:15b). Jesus, true and humble human as well as eternal God, was eager to do what was required of any good Jew. John thus publicly entered the community of those awaiting the Messiah. But making himself part of that community, he made it truly messianic.

The greatness of John, his pivotal place in the history of salvation, is seen in the great emphasis Luke gives to the announcement of his birth and the event itself—both made prominently parallel to the same occurrences in the life of Jesus. John attracted countless people to the banks of the Jordan, and it occurred to some people that he might be the Messiah. But he constantly deferred to Jesus, even to sending away some of his followers to become the first disciples of Jesus.

Perhaps John’s idea of the coming of the Kingdom of God was not being perfectly fulfilled in the public ministry of Jesus. For whatever reason, when he was in prison he sent his disciples to ask Jesus if he was the Messiah. Jesus’ answer showed that the Messiah was to be a figure like that of the Suffering Servant in Isaiah. John himself would share in the pattern of messianic suffering, losing his life to the revenge of Herodias.

GETTING TO KNOW OUR SAINTS

Our Sunday Children’s Liturgy of the Word is taking a hiatus for the summer. We will return again in September.

What is it?

Liturgy of the Word for Children is a program in which the Sunday scripture readings are proclaimed and explained on a level appropriate to children ages 4 to 6 at the 10:30 a.m. Sunday Masses. The main goal of the Children's Liturgy of the Word is to help the children grow closer to God and His people. Any child in this age group may participate - no registration is necessary. Parents may go with a child the first few times to make sure that they are able to participate or to help them overcome any apprehensions that they (or the parents) may have.

What exactly do they do?
The children gather with their leader in the front of the church after the Opening Prayer and are sent forth by the presider. They then process to the Chapel. There is a brief Welcome and Opening Prayer, an age-appropriate reflection on the Word is shared by the leader through stories, discussions, or pictures - whatever the leader finds most appropriate to conveying the meaning of the scriptures.

The children are then invited to share their own thoughts and ideas in various ways. They return to their families at the time of the Offertory of the Mass.

How Can I help?
If you are interested in participating as a volunteer catechist, please contact the Parish Office at 415-282-0141. We provide the materials you need. Keep in mind you will be part of a rotating group, so your volunteer time is not needed every Sunday. All parent volunteers are asked to complete the Shield the Vulnerable online training in keeping with the safety requirements of this Archdiocese.

Thanks for considering!
Are you planning a summer or fall wedding?

If so, now is the time to contact the church’s rectory office and discuss your plans with our pastor and reserve the church.

Keep in mind Archdiocese guidelines require couples contact the parish office at least six months prior to the wedding date to begin the pre-Cana preparation.

Feel free to call our parish office to schedule your initial meeting at 415-282-0141
