August 6, 2017—The Transfiguration of the Lord

We hear God’s affirming voice from heaven as Jesus is gloriously transfigured. Our own words and voices have the power to transform—for good or ill—those around us.

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Sunglasses have become so much a fashion accessory—some people consider them really cool—that we sometimes forget their real purpose. Sunglasses offer us many more important benefits than making a fashion statement. They make us more comfortable in very bright light, filter out harmful ultraviolet rays, protect the eyeballs and tender skin around the eyes from sunburn and the serious consequences that can come from that. It would seem that the transfiguration would have been a sunglasses moment for Peter, James, and John! They needed to shielded not only from the brightness that surrounded Jesus in the transfiguration, but also from the full revelation of their own participation in Jesus’ glory and what that participation would cost them: their very lives.

Surely a sunglasses moment: before the three apostles’ very eyes Jesus’ “face shone like the sun” and “his clothes became white as light.” These images convey more than ordinary brightness, however, from which we naturally want to shield our eyes. Jesus “was transfigured before them.” Something entirely new was happening. He was entirely changed. The apostles were given a glimpse of what was to come—not simply his death, but the risen Life that the Father would give him. Something entirely new was happening to Jesus, and it would happen to them.

While Jesus is transfigured, “Moses and Elijah appeared to them, / conversing with him.”

Peter, James, and John were given a glimpse of the “old.” Moses and Elijah represent the law and prophecy of the old covenant. But with Jesus’ transfiguration, we see the promise of change, of something entirely new taking place. When the voice from the cloud tells the three apostles to “listen to” Jesus, they will hear something new, they will be challenged to embrace something new; they will be called to participate in a mystery only now being revealed in its fullness. They could not be prepared however, for the “new” Jesus, was inaugurating: that human flesh can shine with the glory of God; that death is not the end, rising “from the dead” is.

Peter wants to pitch tents and stay in the brightness and promise. But this cannot be. They must come “down from the mountain” and travel with Jesus to Jerusalem, through their denials and doubts, through their dying to their old lives and selves, through the “old” into the “new.” Only then can they grasp the extent to which God desires to possess us, to draw us into divine Life, to nurture us into the new covenant, the new relationship, God wishes to have with us through the divine Son Jesus’ new covenant promises us a share in his risen Life. In the transfiguration of Jesus, Peter, James and John see their own glorification. And so do we.

August 9—Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross

A brilliant philosopher who stopped believing in God when she was 14, Edith Stein was so captivated by reading the autobiography of Teresa of Avila that she began a spiritual journey that led to her baptism in 1922. Twelve years later she imitated St. Teresa by becoming a Carmelite, taking the name Teresa Benedicta of the Cross.

Born into a prominent Jewish family in Breslau, Germany—now Wroclaw, Poland—Edith abandoned Judaism in her teens. As a student at the University of Göttingen, she became fascinated by phenomenology, an approach to philosophy. Excelling as a protégé of Edmund Husserl, one of the leading phenomenologists, Edith earned a doctorate in philosophy in 1916. She continued as a university teacher until 1922 when she moved to a Dominican school in Speyer; her appointment as lecturer at the Educational Institute of Munich ended under pressure from the Nazis.

After living for four years in the Cologne Carmel, Sr. Teresa Benedicta moved to the Carmelite monastery in Echt, Netherlands, in 1938. The Nazis occupied that country in 1940. In retaliation for being denounced by the Dutch bishops, the Nazis arrested all Dutch Jews who had become Christians. Teresa Benedicta and her sister Rosa, also a Catholic, died in a gas chamber in Auschwitz on August 9, 1942.

Pope John Paul II beatified Teresa Benedicta of the Cross in 1987, and canonized her 12 years later.

Reflection

The writings of Edith Stein fill 17 volumes, many of which have been translated into English. A woman of integrity, she followed the truth wherever it led her. After becoming a Catholic, Edith continued to honor her mother’s Jewish faith. Sister Josephine Koeppel, O.C.D., translator of several of Edith’s books, sums up this saint with the phrase, “Learn to live at God’s hands.”

Our Parish School is pleased to announce the offering of Transitional Kindergarten beginning with the 2017-2018 school term!

This two-year program is designed for students who will turn five years of age between September 2nd and December 2nd. The registration and testing process is the same as for any other kindergarten applicant, with the exception that if a student is not accepted in Kindergarten, the Transitional Kindergarten (TK) program is now available.

For complete details of this new program, please visit the school website at: www.saintphilipschool.org or call the office at: 415.824.8467

We are pleased to offer this new program as an added convenience to interested families. Spread the word!

GENERAL MILLS BOX TOPS FOR EDUCATION

Did you know that our parish school can earn cash by collecting General Mills Box Tops for Education?

That’s right and you can help in this easy fundraising effort over the summer too.

You may recognize the logo noted above on several products you purchase throughout the year. All you need to do is clip that little logo, collect several and turn them in to the school in August/September when school resumes again. It’s that easy. Start collecting!
