The trials of Job led him to an even deeper insight into the ways and the wisdom of God. When life presents us with difficulties, we also can step back in faith, and search more deeply into God’s will.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Dear Parishioners & Visitors,

After many weeks we have come to the conclusion of the first chapter of the Gospel of Mark. What a whirlwind it has been. From the opening sentence announcing the Gospel of Jesus Christ, son of God, to John the Baptist, the calling of disciples, casting out demons, healing the sick, including Simon’s mother-in-law, preaching in synagogues, and now concluding with the healing of someone with a skin disease, the story has been like riding a roller coaster. We reach new heights and move swiftly from episode to episode.

Though our English Bibles refer to the person cured as a “leper,” the term means anyone with a skin disease. An entire chapter in the book of Leviticus (13) is dedicated to diagnosing and treating skin diseases, which were broadly categorized in the ancient world as “leprosy.” Verses 45-46 of that chapter in Leviticus discuss how the person with the disease is to behave, namely, by crying “unclean, unclean” before approaching others, and living apart from the community for as long as the infection lasts.

So the healing performed by Jesus is not merely a healing of the skin disease, though it is certainly that. By telling the man to show himself to the priest, Jesus is, in effect, setting up the situation so the man will be brought back into community. Once the priest declares the infection gone, the afflicted person may return as a full-fledged member of the people, without having to cry out “unclean, unclean” as he goes about his business.

It is for this reason, among others, that scholars and preachers say that Jesus’ ministry was about inclusion. He ministered to those on the margins, or even outside of the community, like this person with a skin disease, and Jesus made them whole. Once whole, the excluded persons could be welcomed back.

Interestingly, even though Jesus warned the man sternly and ordered him not to tell anyone (aside from the priest), the cured man publicized the matter widely! And this publicity affected Jesus’ ministry so that he was no longer able to enter towns openly. It’s as though Jesus were being stalked by the ancient equivalent of the paparazzi. He was not even left alone in the “deserted places” outside the villages.

By the end of the first chapter of Mark the stage has been set. What will happen to this wonder-worker? Will his fame spread beyond the backwater of Galilee? Who else on the margins or outskirts of society will he embrace? What kind of whirlwind will this be?

Have you ever felt hopeless, like Job? Yet Job continued turning to God, even when he felt he would not see happiness again. Jesus spent himself healing and teaching people in today’s Gospel. Yet he turned to God, too. He took time to pray, and felt free not to feel forced into service when he heard, “Everyone is looking for you.” Prayer strengthened him to move on and continue his mission to preach and manifest God’s presence in his works.

Job and Jesus found freedom in their relationship with God. Job did not give up on God, even though God seemed absent. Jesus remained faithful to his mission, even when people wanted him to remain with them. Paul’s relationship with God freed him to preach with Gospel by becoming all things to all people. Centered in his relationship with Jesus, Paul discovered how to live Jesus in every situation he encountered.

We need not rise early in the morning to pray, as Jesus did. Some of us are night people. But we do need to make time for prayer. Even a short amount of time goes a long way. There we find that God is present in our midst. There we can discover true freedom, as Job, Paul, and Jesus did. To pray is to speak to God, according to St. Francis de Sales. So, take a deep breath. There is God. Exhale. Release anxiety, hopelessness, or a feeling pressure. Repeat. Breathe deeply and be centered in the One who is the source of our freedom, who gives us hope, and empowers us to respond to every situation we meet in our lives.

A Stewardship Moment

In today’s Gospel we hear of a great number of suffering people who seek the healing touch of Jesus. He could not respond to them all. But the Gospel also reveals Jesus, after praying in solitude, sensing an urgency to proclaim the Good News of his Father’s redemptive love to those who suffer in the nearby villages and towns. Stewards are called to follow in Jesus’ footsteps, to respond to those who suffer with compassion.

How are we responding to the suffering in our world? How are we using our gifts to continue the work of Christ’s redemptive healing?

Ministry for the Homebound

One way to provide healing and responding to those suffering is by volunteering for our Homebound Ministry serving those members of our church body who, due to physical limitations, are unable to attend church services regularly. Some are unable to leave home at all. While they rely on caregivers who provide for their basic needs, they rely on their church community to provide them prayers and bring them the Body of Christ for spiritual healing.

If you would like to join the group of volunteers that work in teams for our homebound, please contact the parish office at 415-282-0141.

The schedules are flexible and work around your availability too. Training will be provided.

Winter Cold & Flu Season

As always, you are reminded to use common good sense in the reception of Holy Communion during the annual cold and flu season.

If you are feeling ill or think you may have been exposed to a virus, you should refrain from partaking of the Blood of Christ from the communal chalice. In the same way, you should refrain from offering your hand to others at the sign of peace. Likewise if you are not comfortable sharing the sign of peace or receiving Holy Communion from the communal chalice for fear of infection, you should feel no pressure to do so.

All of us must be aware of such sensitive matters in the intimate life of the Christian community and we should expect that some will refrain from the sign of peace and the communal chalice out of care for our well being and not out of unkindness or lack of piety.
Lord, Send Out your Spirit and Renew the Face of the Earth—
Psalm 104
