Third Sunday of Lent
March 4, 2018

Modern life offers us many things to be “zealous” about—things to commit our lives, energies, and resources to. But Jesus shows us there is only one thing that should inspire our zeal: God’s will.

Reflecting on the Word

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

Today we depart from the Gospel of Mark and enter into the Gospel of John. The story of Jesus driving out the money changers happens during Holy Week in the Synoptic Gospels, but early in Jesus’ ministry in John’s gospel. In fact, we are in chapter 2, and Jesus is already in Jerusalem. Rather than a ministry in Galilee followed by a momentous journey to Jerusalem as we have the story in the Synoptic gospels, here in John’s gospel Jesus goes back and forth to Jerusalem throughout his ministry.

At the time of Jesus, the temple had become in some senses a place of commodification. Oxen, sheep, and doves were sold to be sacrificed. It wasn’t enough for one to bring one’s own animals. They had to pass an inspection, and were “pre-certified,” so to speak, guaranteed to be without blemish and therefore worthy of sacrifice. Of course, there might have been a markup for this quality assurance. For a nice price you could buy a worthy sacrifice. How quickly and easily does religion seem to fall into a trap of commodification?

Similar things have happened in our own church history—the selling of indulgences comes to mind. The challenge of commodification of religion is not limited to Jesus’ day, or the annals of church history. Commodification of God’s grace happens today too. The unholy alliance of money and the access to religion that it buys were scandalous then, and should be scandalous today. Jesus responds to this scandal as the Scriptures foretold (Ps 69:9). He is zealous, passionate for his Father’s house, which has been turned into a bazaar.

Those with the vested interest in the status quo are upset. But Jesus replies with his parabolic riddle-speech. “Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up.” Of course, he is referring to the temple of his own body. But the stakeholders do not see the deeper meaning of his speech. They see only literal realities and they know that the temple took nearly half a century to build. To them, Jesus must have seemed a wild-eyed zealot, off his rocker and half-baked. He was dangerous, a threat to business and religious interests, and would have to be stopped.

But for Jesus, the temple is holy, not worthy of profanation, neither the Father’s house nor Jesus’ own self. The example Jesus gives us today demands consideration. We must recoil at every instance of commodified religion, or a selling of God’s grace. God’s presence is not to be bartered; it is not a commodity. God’s grace is freely given to all.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

How seriously do we take the Ten Commandments? Many today adopt a free spirit approach to life and resist conforming their thoughts and actions to established guidelines and principles. We all need direction. Those who travel realize how much easier journeys can be when equipped with the proper directions. The Ten Commandments are God’s proper directions for us to assist us in living our lives as his children. We are given the example of Jesus, the living temple. Jesus allows us to share in his intimate relationship with his Father so that we can more quickly find our way to him. Guidelines and structure are important. Lent reminds us we are created in a certain way and are meant to live our lives in God.

LENTEN FAST & ABSTINENCE REGULATIONS

For Lent the following regulations are in place in the Archdiocese of San Francisco.

Abstinence: Everyone fourteen years of age and older is bound to abstain from meat on ASH WEDNESDAY, the FRIDAYS of Lent, and GOOD FRIDAY.

Fast: Everyone eighteen years of age and older but under the age of sixty is also bound to fast on ASH WEDNESDAY and GOOD FRIDAY. On these two days, the law of fast allows only one full meal a day, but does not prohibit taking some food during the day, so long as this does not constitute another full meal. Drinking liquids during the day is permitted. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. In doubt concerning fast or abstinence, a priest assigned to pastoral ministry or confessor should be consulted. In the spirit of penance, the faithful should not lightly excuse themselves from this obligation.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Father Musaby’Imana at Davies Hospital, the staff chaplain, is in great need of Eucharistic ministers to the sick at Davies and St. Luke Hospitals in San Francisco. Service would be to do one day a week (about 1-2 hours) bringing communion to the hospitalized. If you would like to serve. Please contact Father at 310-526-1404.

If you can spare basic toiletries such as toothpaste, brushes, deodorant, shampoo, lotion, disposable shavers for men/women, cough lozenges, etc., please leave them in the box provided by the Mary statue in the church. These will be delivered during Holy Week to those seeking shelter and hygiene care through the St. Boniface Church Gubbio Project. As always, thank you for your generous expression of love for others.

During the Lenten Season, Stations of the Cross will be recited on Friday mornings following the 8:00 a.m. Mass in the church.

Our Parish school students recite the stations at 11:00 a.m.

The Stations of the Cross is a Lenten devotion that offers witness to Jesus’ Passion and Death. At each station we use our senses and our imagination to reflect prayerfully upon Jesus’ suffering, Death, and Resurrection, and to simply experience the visual images to reflect on Christ’s love for us.

It is with great joy that we welcome the following children into our Catholic Community as they received the Sacrament of Holy Baptism during the month of February, 2018:

- Summer Savina Cannata
- Culann Ren Lazzareschi

How well did you do?

Saint Frances of Rome

Her feast day is March 9.

Francesca dei Roffredeschi was born in Rome in 1384, a time when the city was, arguably, at its worst. With a population of only about 25,000, it was no longer a center of power and international commerce. The popes had long departed to Avignon, France. The skyline was littered with the ruins of once spectacular structures. Wild animals ran free through the overgrowth dominating the city.

When Francesca was 13, her parents arranged for her to be married to the wealthy and aristocratic commander of the city’s army. Her husband’s family estate would be her home for the next 40 years and when her mother-in-law passed away, Francesca was entrusted with running the estate. She and her husband would have six children.

The estate included her husband’s brother and his family, and Francesca discovered that her sister-in-law shared her devout faith and passion to serve the less fortunate. Together they devoted themselves to ministering to the poor and the sick. Francesca and her sister-in-law even turned part of the family estate into a hospital and distributed food and clothing to the poor from there. In time, they inspired other women to join them in their ministry.

The papacy returned to Rome in 1420 and the city’s revival would begin. In 1425, Francesca established a society of women committed to serving the sick and the poor. She employed the Rule of St. Benedict for the community, but without taking vows. They were known as the Oblates of Mary. Eight years later she established a convent for the women who wished to live in community and in the same year, they received papal approval to establish a formal religious congregation. The community eventually became known as the Oblates of St. Frances of Rome.

After her husband’s death in 1436 Francesca herself entered the convent and became its superior until her own death on March 9, 1440. She was buried in the church now called Santa Francesca Romana, where her relics still rest and where there is a recumbent statue of her sculpted by Bernini. St. Frances of Rome is the patron saint of widows and motorists. During her life, she is said to have had a recurring vision for several years of her guardian angel using a lantern to light the road in front of her when she drove her wagon, keeping her safe from hazards. It is thought that this may be the reason why she was named patron saint of motorists by Pope Pius XI.
